Handwritten marginal notes in a vertical column on the left side of the page.

Handwritten text in a South Indian script, likely Grantha or Tamil, arranged in approximately 10 horizontal lines. The script is dark and appears to be from a historical manuscript. Some words are written in red ink, possibly indicating specific terms or emphasis. The text is somewhat faded and the parchment shows signs of age.

Handwritten text at the top of the page, likely a title or header, in a script that appears to be Devanagari or a related Indic script.

Handwritten text in a script, likely Devanagari, arranged in several lines. The text is written in black ink on aged paper. There are some red markings or corrections visible in the middle section of the text.

Handwritten text in the right margin, possibly a commentary or a reference.

[illegible]

Handwritten text at the top of the page, likely a title or introductory passage, written in a cursive script.

Handwritten text in the main body of the page, organized into several lines. The script is a cursive form of a South Asian language, possibly Telugu or Kannada. The text is written in black ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. There are some red markings or corrections visible in the middle of the text.

Handwritten marginal note in a vertical column on the left side of the page.

Handwritten text in a South Asian script, likely Pali or Sanskrit, arranged in approximately 10 horizontal lines. The script is dark and appears to be from a historical manuscript. Some characters are written in red ink, possibly indicating specific words or sections. The text is somewhat faded and the parchment shows signs of age.

[illegible]

Handwritten text at the top of the page, likely a title or header in a script.

Handwritten text in a script, possibly Tamil or Sanskrit, arranged in several lines. The text includes various characters and symbols, some of which are highlighted in red ink. The script is dense and appears to be a form of classical or religious text.

[illegible]

Handwritten marginal notes in a script, likely Indic, running vertically along the left edge of the manuscript page.

Handwritten text in a script, likely Indic, arranged in approximately 10 horizontal lines. The text is written in black ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. There are some red ink markings or corrections interspersed within the lines, particularly in the middle section. The script appears to be a form of Devanagari or a related Indic script.

[illegible]

Handwritten text at the top of the page, likely a title or header, in a faded script.

Handwritten text in a South Indian script, likely Grantha or Tamil. The text is arranged in approximately 10 horizontal lines. A significant portion of the text is written in red ink, indicating it may be a liturgical or ceremonial text. The script is dense and characteristic of classical South Indian inscriptions.

Vertical text on the left margin, possibly a commentary or a reference to another text.
